(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALFIGH, N. C., Feb. 3 .- The first skir mish in the fight for the enactment of an anti-jug law, to take the place of the accidental law that is now in process of repeal in the North Carolina General Assembly, occurred in the House of Representatives this afternoon, when the new bill, by Mr. McNinch, came up on its second reading. Advocates of the bill desired its immediate passage on the second reading, but the opposition forced postponement, so that it was made a special order for February 14th. In the

A message from the Governor was received and read is both House and Senate, to the offset that he had received a telegram from the sheriff of Cumberland country, asking for a special term of the Superior Court of that county to try the negro, Walter Partridge, charged with criminal assault on Mrs. Hales. That it was not possible to order a special term before March, and the Legislature was asked to pass a law providing for the trial of criminal cases at the civil term of the Superior Court, which convenes February 20th in Fayetteville. A bill to this effect passed both houses.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

mum Activity Yet to Come. (By Associated Fress.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—R. G. Dun and Com-

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—R. G. Dun and Company's weekly review of trade to-morrow, will say:

Trade progressed standily, all speculative excepses having been avoided thus far, and the numerous negotiations now pending indicate that the maximum of activity is yet to come. Some Irregularity in reports for the first months, were undoubtedly due to exceptionally severe wanther. The weakness in cotton also had a tendency to check operations at the South. Taken as a whole, however, results for January were very much better than in the same month last year, particularly as to failures. Distribution of merchandise is once more on a liberal scale, ir fifte blockades having disappeared and, in many cases, larger colerances sales having disposed of burdensome stocks. Collections are still somewhat irregular, but on the whole, there is little cause for complaint. Iron furnaces and steal mills operate close to their full capacity and the quarterly report of the leading concerns showed at the end of the year, despite the fact that the close maintain of 1904 made very good exhibits.

Weelen nills maintain records of scrivity.

ON CRANEY ISLAND.

Secretary Pannill, of the Board of Health, has received a letter from Secretary Paul Morton, of the Navy Department. Washington, which says that the Government has abandoned the fine buildings on Craney Island for magazine purposes, and since they have been used for the purpose of a hospital for contagious diseases, the government does not regard them as valuable for any other purpose, and therefore it will not require the city to insure them.

That practically gives Norfolk and Portsmouth absolute control over the buildings to do as the cities please with them. Norfolk has already expended $7,500 in arranging the buildings, two of which are substantial brick structures, for use as a hospital, and the Council's Finence Committee is asked to provide the money to maintain them.
